IRAQ DEMANDS ALLIED INTERVENTION

Muslim League's Call To Britain To Restore Normal Conditions: Khaliq-uz-Zaman Accuses America Of Anti-Arabism In Palestine

BAGHDAD, November 14

A special meeting of the Iraqi Parliament today unanimously passed a resolution protesting against the French National Committee's attitude towards the Lebanese nation and leaders. A protest accordingly has been sent to the Parliaments of Britain and the United States.

Speaking at the meeting, political leaders bitterly deplored the French action and appealed for Allied intervention.

The Prime Minister Nuri-es-Said informed the House of the details of the "regrettable" events in the Lebanon and of the Iraqi Government's reaction to them.

The protests to Britain and the United States demanded the removal of French authority from the Lebanon until the end of the war, leaving the settlement of the issue to the Peace Conference.

The Prime Minister revealed that the acting Regent, Emir Zeid, had expressed Iraq's disapproval to the British Ambassador and American Charge d'Affaires at an audience in the presence of the Iraqi Minister of Foreign Affairs. Emir Zeid had also sent a message through the Iraqi Charge d'Affaires in Beirut to the families of the President and the Cabinet Ministers of the Lebanon saying that Iraq was doing her utmost for the cause of the Lebanon and that he was ready for any personal assistance.

LEAGUE'S CALL TO BRITAIN

NEW DELHI, Nov. 14.

The Council of the All-India Muslim League adopted three resolutions before it adjourned till to-morrow morning. One resolution related to Palestine. This was adopted by the Working Committee of the League last night.

The second resolution referred to Lebanon and viewed with "profound alarm the grave situation that has arisen in Lebanon as a result of the action of the French authorities in forcibly suppressing the demand of full autonomy by the Lebanese and viewed with satisfaction the clear declaration made by the British Government with regard to the recent developments that have taken place in Lebanon, reaffirming the solemn pledge guaranteeing the independence of that country. The Council further urges upon the British Government to take immediate steps to restore normal conditions and to secure full independence for the country and thus prevent the situation from becoming worse."

Maulana Zafar Ali Khan moving the resolution, stated that the statesmen of the Allied Nations should realise that the people of the East were as eager to secure their independence and freedom as those of the Western countries.

Maulana Jamal Mian stated that it was because of the hostility towards the French that the Lebanese had welcomed British forces during the present war in their country. The resolution was adopted.

PALESTINE AND JEWS

Following is the full text of the Palestine resolution adopted by the Working Committee of the All-India Muslim League at its afternoon session today:—

"The Working Committee has learnt with alarm and misgivings that Jewish agencies have again started anti-Arab propaganda and are pulling strings in America and England for further immigration of Jews into Palestine to the detriment of the just and legitimate interests of that country. The Working Committee consider it necessary to remind the British Government that the re-opening of the immigration question will be directly in conflict with even the policy outlined in the White Paper and contrary to the solemn pledges given by the ex-Viceroy Lord Linlithgow, in his letter dated June 22, 1940 to Mr. Jinnah, President of the All-India Muslim League, in the following terms:

'Finally I would invite your attention to the measures so far taken to implement the policy laid down in the White Paper in May 1939, namely, registration of Jews immigration since April 1939 in accordance with the provisions of the White Paper and the enactment of Legislation last February with which you will be familiar from the references in the public press and which was embodied in the Command Paper 6180 controlling the transfer of land in the interests of Arab agriculturists. You may rest assured that every consideration has been and will continue to be given by His Majesty's Government to legitimate Arab claims.'

The Working Committee emphatically warns the British Government that any further injustice done to Palestine Arabs under Jewish or foreign influence or by departure from the solemn pledges to the Arabs from time to time which might result in the frustration of their national aspiration for independence will be greatly resented by the Muslims of India."

Chaudhury Khaliq-uz-Zaman, moving the Palestine resolution traced the history of Arab-Jewish relations in that country. He referred to the protest of the Arab League against certain statements of Mr. Wendell Willkie and Mr. Louis Fischer of U.S.A. and said that they did not know what those statements were, but they knew that U.S.A. ranked in the forefront in all anti-Arab movements. He claimed that the Balfour Declaration originated from America. The Musalmans of India to-day demanded that the policy embodied in the British White Paper should be adhered to. He reminded the Council that the Palestine issue would assume great importance immediately after the war and they should remain alert to secure justice to Palestine Jews.

Mr. Latif-ul-Rahman seconded the resolution, which was adopted.

LIBERATE THOSE FREED FROM ITALY TOO

The other two resolutions related to Muslim countries North Africa and Middle East.

One of them urged upon His Majesty's Government in particular and other Allied Powers that the territories recently released from the control of Italy, namely, Cirenaica, Lybia and Tripoli should not only be not handed back to the Italian Government, but they be constituted as independent Sovereign States: that the "vicious system of Mandates should be abolished once for all and the countries of which the Mandates were held by Great Britain and France, namely, Palestine, Syria and Lebanon will be restored to the people of those countries to set up their own sovereign governments in those territories. Having regard to the oft-repeated declarations by the United Nations that they seek to liberate the subject nationalities, this Council demands that the United Powers should urge France to liberate Morocco, Algeria and Tunis."

This resolution was moved by Syed Zakir Ali and seconded by Mr. Hossain Imam, both of whom pointed out that the Allied Powers had shown their keen desire to liberate the people now under the enemy yoke, but were lukewarm to apply those principles of freedom and justice to people under their own domination.

The resolution was passed.

The Council adjourned till to-morrow morning—A.P.

Br. Minister Meets Catroux

French View Of Lebanon Disturbances

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS, NORTH AFRICA, Nov. 14.

From Reuter's special correspondent: The British Minister in North Africa, Mr. Harold MacMillan saw Gen. Georges Catroux before he left for the Lebanon.

In spite of signs that the French Committee on National Liberation does not intend to disavow the action of the French Delegate-General in the Levant, M. Jean Helleu, the despatch of Gen. Catroux is an indication of its recognition of the necessity for urgent investigation of the situation from the highest level.

It is understood that Mr. MacMillan is receiving full and regular information from Maj. Gen. Sir Edward Spears, the British Minister in Beirut, and is in a position to make representation to the French Commissioner for Foreign Affairs, M. Rene Massigli in the light of the latest information on the situation.

In French circles here it is still asserted today that the degree of disorder in the Lebanon has been exaggerated.

LEBANESE WOMEN AMONG DEMONSTRATORS

CAIRO, Nov. 13: Though demonstrations in Beirut were less serious today than yesterday, incidents are still frequent, according to the latest reports from a well-informed source.

Lebanese women have appeared by the side of demonstrators fighting the Sengalese troops and French marines.

Two armoured cars were assaulted.—Reuter.

C.-In-C. Denies Reports Of Armed Clashes

CAIRO, Nov. 14.

General Chadebec Delavalade, Commander-in-Chief of the Lebanon who is visiting Cairo talking to pressmen on Saturday night denied all reports of armed clashes in the Lebanon. He reiterated the promise of independence to Syria and the Lebanon. General Davalade also denied that Martial Law had been proclaimed though curfew was imposed. The Lebanese people, he said, were calm and save for minor incidents, the situation throughout the country was quiet.

The General denied that deputies had been arrested and that the arrests of the Lebanese statesmen were made by Senegalese troops. The officers and soldiers were French, he said. He also denied that Senegalese troops had fired on the population.—Reuter.

Shadow Lebanese Govt.

JERUSALEM, Nov. 14.

A shadow Lebanese Government has been formed, it was reported here on Saturday night. It was said to consist of Henry Pharoon as Vice-President, Said Salam as Vice-Premier, and those Ministers who were not arrested as the Cabinet. Their Headquarters are in the ancient city Baalbek, 35 miles from Damascus.—Reuter.

FIGHTING IN LEROS

Both Parties Receive Reinforcements

LONDON, Nov. 14.

The Cairo radio said to-day regarding the continuance of fighting on Leros: "The Germans have sent more reinforcements, but the British forces were reinforced by Italians who are continuing to fight. There was heavy fighting in the harbour area of Leros."

ALLIED GAINS

CAIRO: To-day's Middle East Communique says: "Heavy fighting continues in Leros, where the enemy further reinforced his troops. In the northern sector our forces made local gains. In the central sector the enemy somewhat improved his position, but is being contained by our troops.

Offensive sweeps in force by long-ranged fighters of the R.A.F. were carried out in the Aegean area yesterday.

Near Leros one MESSERSCHMITT 109 was shot down. Last night in deteriorating weather conditions enemy airfields were bombed. Heavy bombers attacked Calato (Rhodes) airfield in poor visibility but preliminary reports suggest that the bombing was well concentrated. Antimacha (Cos) airfield was attacked twice during the night.

On the previous night Lambia (Cos) airfield was also bombed. West of Leros a small vessel was attacked, direct hits being observed.

From these and other operations four of our aircraft are missing.

NAZIS CUT IT INTO TWO

From Reuter's special correspondent: German troops have cut the island of Leros in two by joining up with forces operating across the "waist" of the island from the Bay of Gurna to the Bay of Alinda. They used paratroops to complete the straddling of this narrowest part of the island which is scarcely more than a mile wide.

WANT OF AIR SUPPORT

The British and Italian garrison are still putting up strenuous resistance and latest reports say that the fighting and German penetration remain confined to the top half of the island. German bombing continues persistent and heavy. They are using both 'Stukas' and 'Junkers 88s'. The island garrison is in good heart and fighting well, including the Italians. It is learned here, but they are missing air support, which is unfortunately denied to them by the lack of British air bases from which fighters can effectively operate.

SIXTY-SIX DEATHS IN CALCUTTA

(THROUGH A. P. & U. P.)

CALCUTTA, Nov. 14.

Sixty-six sick destitutes died yesterday in various hospitals in Calcutta and suburbs and there were 99 new admissions.

Seventy-six dead bodies were disposed of yesterday by the Hindu Satkar Samity and the Anjuman Mafid-ul-Islam.

Four hundred and fifty-seven sick destitutes died in different hospitals in Calcutta and suburbs during the week ended November 13 as against 523 in the preceding week, according to official figures.

A deputation of representatives of co-operative stores and societies waited on Mr. T. C. Goswami, Finance Minister, today and suggested the procurement and distribution of foodgrains mainly through co-operative societies and the building up of consumers' societies as main channels of distribution.

The University is taking steps to procure additional stocks of foodgrains and subject to transport facilities the scheme of relief to students living in approved hostels and masses and teachers of affiliated colleges and recognised schools will be extended throughout Bengal.

NOAKHALI: During the week ended November 6 19 sick destitutes were admitted in the Relief Hospital while four died and 30 were discharged. During the same period 77 sick destitutes were admitted in the District Board Relief Hospital at Chowmuhani of whom 12 died and 37 were discharged. Of the 64 sick destitutes admitted in the District Board Relief Hospital at Lakshmipur during the week under review 10 died and 22 were discharged.

NEW DELHI: Over a hundred thousand infants and nursing mothers throughout the worst affected areas in Bengal are being given milk daily out of supplies made available by the Red Cross authorities.

Vote For Congress

The Secretary of the Bombay Office Workers' Union has issued the following:—

"The public are already aware that six seats of the Bombay Municipal Corporation have fallen vacant in ward Nos. 11, 12, 16, 17, 18 and 19 owing to the continued detention of the six Congress members of the Corporation without trial whatsoever. By-election for these seats will be held on Tuesday the 16th instant. I take this opportunity to request all the office workers residing in these wards to exercise their franchise in favour of the Congress candidates. We hope the employers will give the necessary facilities to their staff to go and vote for the candidates on the election day."

NAHAS PASHA'S DEMAND

CAIRO: The Egyptian Prime Minister Nahas Pasha declared on Saturday night: "I cannot allow oppression of our Lebanese brethren to continue. I will not rest until the Lebanese President, Premier and other Ministers have been released. In the name of Arab countries I demand that the Legal Lebanese Government should resume office with all dignity and freedom and work for the independence of the Lebanon."

Nahas Pasha was speaking at a reception given by him on the Silver Jubilee of Egypt's National Day celebrating the visit of the Egyptian Leader Zaghlul to the British High Commissioner to ask for the Independence of Egypt.

The Maronite Archbishop of the Lebanon, declared to-night: "I denounce the French Mandate and formally ask for the protection of Britain for Christians in the Middle East not against the Muslims but against the French."

Many people in Damascus took part in demonstrations after prayers yesterday. People of the Syrian Province of Djebel Druze have protested to the French Authorities against the latest measures. The general strike has spread throughout the Lebanon.—Reuter.

Hull's Assurance To Filipinos

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13: The Secretary of State Mr. Cordell Hull in a message to the Filipino people of the Eighth Anniversary of the establishment of the Philippine Commonwealth said to-day "President Roosevelt's pledge to redeem the Philippines is certain of fulfilment. No one knows better than the Filipinos themselves that the so-called independence at the hands of the Japanese whose one thought is to stifle the Filipino initiative, to stunt the Filipino culture and mould the Filipino people to Japan's purposes of Empire and self-agrandisement—denotes independence only in name. The Japanese will not remain in the Philippines. They will be driven out".—Reuter.

SOVIET READY FOR ANOTHER BREAK-THROUGH?

LONDON, Nov. 14.

The German News Agency military correspondent Col. Ernest von Hammer wrote to-night that Soviet artillery early to-day display extensive activity along the Smolensk-Orsha motor road which "justifies the assumption that the Soviet Command intends to repeat once more a break-through attempt on the Dnieper-Dvina stretch."

Saturday's Soviet 'communique' says:

During November 13th troops of the first Ukrainian front captured the town and railway junction of Malin as well as two other district centres, and more than 100 other inhabited localities.

STOCKHOLM, Nov. 13: German demolition squads are already at work in Berdichev 25 miles south of Zhitomir and the junction of railways to Poland and Bessarabia according to the Berne correspondent of "Aftontidningen."

65 MILES FROM POLISH BORDER

Zhitomir, which is the second key railway junction captured by General Vatutin's troops since the break through at Kiev a week ago, lies on the great north-south trunk railway from Leningrad to Odessa, 80 miles west of Kiev.

'Red Star' Demands Elimination Of Finnish Hitlerites

MOSCOW, Nov. 14.

From Reuter's special correspondent: A call for "complete elimination of Finnish Hitlerites, who must share the fate of German Fascist criminals" was made to-day by the "Red Star" commentator M. Yermanshov.

Reviewing the history of German aggression in Scandinavia, M. Yermanshov says Finland played into German hands "and all this led to the isolation of Sweden". Far sighted politicians in Scandinavia "understand that anti-Soviet adventures may bring destructive consequences for the northern countries and that only friendly and good neighbourly relations with the Soviet Union are a guarantee of peace in Northern Europe."

YUGOSLAVS CAPTURE TWO TOWNS

LONDON, Nov. 14.

Communique from the Headquarters of the Yugoslav National Army of Liberation said: "In Croatia Croat units of the Liberation Army scored a great success. After heavy fighting they occupied the towns of Koprivnica and Virovitnica on the Hungarian border. In Koprivnica 400 officers and men of the town garrison were captured. At Virovitnica 500 officers and men were captured.—Reuter.

KOROSTEN SURROUNDED

LONDON, Nov. 14: Soviet radio spokesman says that at least 30,000 German cracktroops will be forced to surrender or be annihilated by the capture of the two key points Ivanovka and Rotevnkaya east and north of Korosten. The town, he added, is surrounded on three sides.

Rescue work was started immediately and the injured were removed by special trains at Villupuram. Arrangements were also made to get food from Villupuram for stranded passengers.

The Agent and General Manager of the Railway also arrived at the scene of accident this morning from Trichinopoly.

Railway authorities made arrangements at Egmore to receive the injured in the event of their being brought to Madras but none was brought here all of them being removed to Cuddalore and Villupuram hospitals as already reported. District Magistrate, South Arcot has already proceeded to the spot with other officers.—A. P.

According to lobby anticipations, Government is shortly amending Defence of India Rules which at present empowers indefinite detention. Congressmen presently under detention will be regarded arrested 'de novo' and their cases will be subject to rieview immediately.

PATROL CLASHES ON BURMA FRONT

R. A. F. And American Planes Attack Communications Targets

NEW DELHI, Nov. 14.

Active patrolling continues along the Burma front, particularly in the Arakan and Chin Hills sectors; says an India Command Joint War Communique.

In Arakan during the past two weeks our forward troops have had a number of clashes with the enemy a few miles north of Maungdaw, in all of which the enemy suffered casualties and were forced to retire.

In the Chin Hills our patrols have recently encountered the enemy in the Kalemyo area and have inflicted many casualties at slight cost to themselves. Further south, parties of the enemy have ranged farther afield and clashes have occurred with our troops in the vicinity of Falam.

Enemy occupied villages and positions in the Kalemyo section were the objectives yesterday for fighter bombers and dive-bombers of the R.A.F. Bursts were seen amongst buildings and huts and the targets were machine-gunned after the bombing.

In the same area enemy stores were bombed and machine-gunned by 'Vengeances.'

Fighters continuing their attacks against the enemy's river communications made damaging attacks on five steamers on the Irrawaddy near Mandalay. At Nyaunghla further down the river, oilfield installations were successfully shot up.

Last night medium bombers raided a supply dump at Toungoo and riverside buildings at a ferry in the same area. At both places fires were started and explosions were seen as our aircraft were leaving the targets.

BURMA TARGETS RAIDED

'Liberators' and fighter-bombers of the Tenth U.S. Air Force attacked the engine shops at Myitnge on November 13.

Bombay Mayor's Warning

Dr. H. P. Dastur, Sopari Bag Road, writes:—

How prophetic is the warning of the new President of the Corporation that "we may be forced to see with our own eyes the sights which are at present disgracing the streets of Calcutta." for I had to see one this morning, at the corner of my dispensary. I saw a Bhaiya lying on the footpath helpless and groaning for food. He had none for last three days. I went over to fetch him a cup of tea, and when I returned with it, I found that some one else was trying to feed him with chapati. Fortunately I was in time to snatch it away from his very mouth and I hurt the kind susceptibilities of another gentleman who was ready with a cup of milk for him, because I insisted that he should have nothing more than a few sips of the tea I had brought. After this I put him in my car and drove him straight to the hospital.

I write this to draw attention that it is vitally necessary to educate the public that the way to help these destitutes is to start feeding them with small quantities of gruel and something similar, and nothing stronger than that, and remove them as quickly as possible to a hospital.

The Half-Column "By Dim"

Exclusive from Gestapo Agent P.Q. 13 care Secretariat, New Delhi: Stop all wires! Full all trains! The news is big! It is not possible to divulge the name, but a top-class man is coming to India—to handle publicity for the Mountbatten command. Be ready to shake hands with the Ace Gentleman from Fleet Street. This disposes of the report that Brigadier Jehn was to handle this big job.

* * *

In sharp contrast to Mr. Churchill's speech was Herr Hitler's speech—less crazy than before, but crazy nevertheless. Hitler seems to have developed a sense of humour judging from his caustic remark: "The race to the Brenner has become a very slow crawl". Again Hitler vied with Churchill in his conviction about the end of the war. For the first time he used the phrase: "But we will never CAPITULATE." It was a strange reversal from the early days when CAPITULATION was a word applied by him only to the Allies. He also said that everything was possible in this war except that "I should lose my nerve". These are words of a losing side and a falling man. Defeat is on his brain and it will tell on him as the days march on and the armies, too, on to the citadel of the Third Reich. It looks like Deutchland UNDER Allies.

THE FOOD DEBATE

Initiating the debate in the Central Legislative Assembly Sir J. P. Srivastava, Food Member, gave some reassuring figures about the flow of food grains into Bengal. He said that as against the Bengal Governor's estimate of Bengal's requirements for the three months, October to December, of 250,000 tons, 82,000 tons were sent during October. He also stated that the daily average rate of arrival of food grains and pulses into Calcutta during the period, June to October, was over 3,300 tons per day, as against a daily average of 1,600 tons for the corresponding period last year. It will be seen from the second set of figures that the supply per month from June to October last was nearly 100,000 tons as against the nearly 83,000 tons per month asked for by the Governor for the months of October to December and against the 82,000 tons actually sent in October. The question arises how, in spite of the supply of 100,000 tons per month, so many deaths occurred. This will be only one of the questions that will have to be investigated into by the Enquiry Committee by members in the Assembly.

All are agreed on the need for an enquiry but not all on its scope or personnel. As regards the scope, it is well to inquire that several past matters need to be investigated not so much for the purpose of fixing responsibility for the present troubles as for preventing the repetition of past blunders. And as regards the personnel, all are agreed on the general principle that the Committee should be not only competent but should also inspire confidence among the public. It is, therefore, essential that the Committee should be predominantly Indian and composed of the accredited representatives of the people. The suggestion made by Mr. Jamnadas Mehta is substantially similar to that made by Mr. K. C. Neogy. It asks for a committee of fourteen with eight elected members of the Assembly, four elected members of the Council of State and one Accountant-General with the Chief Justice of the Federal Court as Chairman. It will be well if all the important parties, including the Congress Party, agree on the personnel as well as the scope of the Enquiry Committee.

It has been naturally impossible to keep politics out of the discussion in the Assembly. Almost all Indian speakers agreed that the Government of India must bear a heavy responsibility for the present tragedy, or rather series of tragedies. The motion that Lord Linlithgow, Mr. Amery and Sir John Herbert should be publicly tried may not be allowed by the President or passed even if allowed. But it reflects the feeling in the country that these men have much to answer for with regard to the present crisis. A much simpler but most urgent demand was made by Khan Bahadur G. K. M. Shaban who urged on the Governor-General to release political detenus in order to allow them to pull their weight in the crisis. The Khan Bahadur suggested only temporary release, but it will be beneficent as well as graceful if the release is unconditional. After all, under the Ordinance Raj any of the released men can be re-thrust into prison in a moment if Government so wish. If Government continue to affect a supercilious attitude and demand undertakings and apologies from the leaders, their responsibility for the consequences will be much heavier than it is already.

Anglo-American Strategy

Since it is now—as, indeed, it has been for some time—out of the question for the British and the Americans immediately to smash their way through to Northern Italy they are doing the next best thing. While the Fifth and and the Eighth Armies are forcing the Germans to fight furiously for their so-called winter line covering Rome, Allied bombers have begun striking effectively communications between Germany and Italy. There are only three railways linking the two countries, two through France and the third through the Brenner Pass. The Allied bombers have successfully set about blocking all three. The inevitable result of this would be to reduce considerably, if not cut off, supplies and reinforcements to the German armies in Italy. The strategy seems to be a long range but quite an interesting one.

In due course the Germans, fighting hard while withdrawing slowly in central Italy and receiving less and less reinforcements and supplies, will be sufficiently weakened to enable General Eisenhower to launch a big and decisive offensive for the Battle of Italy. But by this time the British and the Americans will also, as it is to be hoped, be ready to embark upon the greatest of all their adventures to date, that is, the invasion of Western Europe. Apparently, therefore, the second front and the flare up in Italy are timed to coincide as a grand double assault on Hitler's Europe. Together with the increasingly magnificent Russian drive, these two offensives, the battle for Western Europe and the battle of Italy, will really mark the beginning of the Battle of Germany, the last and final phase of the war against Hitler. But, of course, we have to wait for 1944 for all this.

FRANKLY SPEAKING

After Cos, Leros

During the early days of the Italian collapse, the British in the Middle East took sensible advantage of the confusion and occupied three islands in the Dodecanese group, Cos, Leros and Samos. This move by General Maitland Wilson raised hopes. But what happened? Nothing more was done and after a short interval the Germans, who had by then succeeded in restoring the situation in Greece as elsewhere, descended upon Cos and took it. The British, however, continued to remain idle, so that the Germans have now landed in Leros which being isolated like Cos will no doubt be occupied by the Germans. And the same fate awaits Samos. Commenting on the German success at Cos we expressed regret that the British had missed a valuable opportunity when they failed to extend and consolidate their hold on the Dodecanese and we wondered why, if nothing more was intended to be done than to sit on the three islands waiting to be ejected in due course by the Germans, the adventure was undertaken at all. The Nazi attack on Leros revives the same feeling and the same question with increased intensity.

Jap Propaganda

The Japs have learnt to tell the big lie but without intelligence or imagination. They doggedly stick to the technique ignoring the obvious fact that they have nothing to sustain it and that the situation has changed entirely. The Germans had at least the sense to destroy a whole lot of British naval units while their U-boats were doing well in the battle of the Atlantic and to annihilate the Russian Army while they were successfully driving through Russia. They had some basic facts which they exaggerated wildly. The Japanese, except during the first six months of the war, have been assiduously exaggerating on—nothing. They have wiped out the American fleet fairly frequently after Pearl Harbour. But every time this "success" was the result of—an American victory. And it never occurred to them that such "success", if followed by a Japanese "withdrawal" or evacuation from important bases, was rather ridiculous. It does not occur to them even now. So that they have again "destroyed" an entire American Pacific fleet in the waters of the Solomons, while the result of this destruction is that General MacArthur's aggressive activities continues and aircraft of the "destroyed" Pacific Fleet have struck a heavy blow at Jap warships in Rabaul. The Japs have neither intelligence nor imagination.

German Communications Problem

Last week's concentrated air attack on Modane focusses attention on the German supply lines into Italy. Modane controls the entrance to Mont Cenis tunnel in South-eastern France and is thus a key railway junction. Considering that only three routes run into Italy from the continent—two from France and one through the Brenner Pass,—the problem of supplying the German army in Italy is not an easy one. So far it may not have assumed critical proportions owing to the accumulations in North Italy and also owing to the fact that a major battle has not yet been joined. But the communications bottleneck does remain the Achilles' heel of Rommel and General Eisenhower is doing well in repeatedly hitting at it.

Support Congress

Several Municipal by-elections are to be held on Tuesday in the city. We have to say to the voters what we said at the last by-elections, that from every point of view it is the best course for them to support the Congress candidates who are all able tried men. If the candidates are not free to address the voters personally it should be a special reason why they should be supported. On all such occasions before Bombay voters have demonstrated their loyalty to the Congress and their appreciation of its service in the sphere of local self-government as well as that of national self-government. They must rise to the occasion once again.

VIJAY-KANGA TEAMS PLAY GOOD CRICKET

A large crowd gathered at the Esplanade to witness a one-and-a-half day drawn match between the Hindu Representative XI and Dr. Kanga XI on the ground of the Elphinstone Cricket Club. The match began on Saturday afternoon. The Hindu side under Vijay Merchant batted first and put up a decent score of 324. The brightest part of the Hindu innings was the partnership between Vijay and Rangnekar, each of whom contributed 73 and 96 respectively.

The Parsis also played a forceful game, and when stumps were drawn for the day they had succeeded in collecting 256 runs for loss of 7 wickets. J. N. Colah who is included in this year's Parsi team contributed a faultless 76, and R. S. Cooper retired with 51 to his credit.

Jinnah Says:

Pakistan Postulates Freedom For Hindus And Muslims

NEW DELHI, November 14.

"This manoeuvring on the part of the Government to create the impression that there should be a united Central Government of India shows that the die-hard Tories who rule Great Britain do not wish to release their hold on this country", said Mr. M. A. Jinnah, President of the All-India Muslim League addressing the All-India Muslim League Council to-day.

Mr. Jinnah said he not only wanted the Muslims but every man in this sub-continent to realise this. When the British talk of Central Government, the sole object was that neither Hindus nor Muslims were to be freed. It meant the continuation of British domination and British rule.

Pakistan, he said, postulated freedom for Hindus as well as Muslims. There could be no Pakistan without the Hindus getting freedom in their Hindustan.

Referring to the proposal of Akhand Hindustan, or National Government he said the crux was the establishment of Hindu Raj and Hindu dominated Government in this country. The results of this were so obvious to Muslim India, that they were to be transferred to a Hindu Raj and instead of the British garrison they would be kept under order by the Hindu garrison. Was it possible for the Hindu leaders, he asked, to accomplish or achieve this when the Muslims were fully alive, alert and vigilant? Could they expect Muslim India to sign their own death warrant?

Around these three rival schemes centred all the propaganda that filled the Press and issued from the platform, since the Council last met, and barring this Mr. Jinnah saw nothing new that had happened on the political horizon of India, that he should comment on. He was mentioning these issues merely in order to refresh the Council's memory.

Mr. Jinnah expressed concern over developments in Lebanon and said that a resolution on the subject would be placed before the Council to-morrow.

BENGAL SITUATION

Turning to the food situation, on which a resolution is to be moved to-morrow, Mr. Jinnah said that the Working Committee had given serious consideration to the matter and would not only make carefully considered proposals but also facts about the situation. He defended the Ministry in Bengal and declared they were doing their very best. When they got in, the conflagration had already started and Bengal was overwhelmed with the crisis. Some one was responsible for that conflagration. The Nazimuddin Ministry went there as a fire-brigade and were doing their utmost to put out the fire. He deprecated the activities of those who "even in the presence of death were wickedly using the occasion for political propaganda and for the attainment of ulterior objects". He said the famine in Bengal was man-made and was the greatest blot on the British Administration in India.

Mr. Jinnah referred to the affairs in Kashmir and said the situation there was really very serious. If the accounts reaching him were to be believed, he would say the situation was appalling. He appealed to His Highness the Maharaja to look into the matter and discharge his great responsibilities as a Ruler of the State, and the duty that he owed to his people nearly eighty per cent of whom were Mussalmans. He should not allow this state of things to continue.

DEMOCRATIC LEAGUE

Mr. Jinnah thanked the Council for the expression to their sympathy and joy over his escape. He did not want to say anything more on the subject. He appealed earnestly to every Mussalman to come under the banner of the Muslim League, because therein lay their salvation. The constitution of the Muslim League was the most democratic that could be framed. There was no Muslim to whom the doors of the League were not open. If they were dissatisfied with the leader, surely the remedy lay in their own hands. The leaders were the creatures of the will of the people and existed on their approval. They could remove him in 24 hours if they so wished, by exercising their right under the constitution of the party, but if they tried to settle things by knife and force, that would mean nothing but bloodshed, chaos and misery.

Mr. Jinnah said he was responding to the call of the Nation by cheerfully accepting his re-election because it gave opportunities to serve the people.—A.P.

Leaguers Banned From Joining Khaksars

NEW DELHI, Nov. 13.

The Premiers of Bengal, Punjab Sind and N. W. F. Province and Presidents of the Provincial Leagues of Bengal, Bombay, United Provinces, Punjab, N. W. F. Province, Delhi, Baluchistan and Central Provinces participated in the discussions of the Working Committee of the All-India Muslim League in its afternoon session to-day. Mr. M. A. Jinnah, presided.

The meeting, 'inter alia' considered the food situation in the country, and adopted a resolution on Palestine.

The Committee adjourned till Monday afternoon.

The meeting also appointed a Committee consisting of Sir Nazimuddin, Nawab Ismail Khan and Chawdhury Khaliq-uz-Zaman to examine the constitution that has been framed for the Muslim League Party in the Punjab Legislative Assembly.

The Council of the All-India Muslim League meets to-morrow morning and its session is expected to continue till Monday morning when the Bengal Premier, Sir Nazimuddin will address the meeting on food situation in Bengal.

The four Muslim Premiers will meet Mr. Jinnah after the session of the Council is concluded on Monday morning. The Working Committee will meet again on Monday afternoon.

PUNJAB PARTY

Mr. Karamat Ali withdrew his resolution demanding a clear and definite statement from the Muslim League Party in the Punjab Legislative Assembly regarding its attitude towards the Provincial and Central Muslim League Parliamentary Boards and whether it maintained that the present Punjab Ministry has been formed by the leader of the Punjab League Party as the Parliamentary agent of the Muslim League. He was doing so, he said, in view of the decision of the League Working Committee to appoint a sub-committee to examine the constitution that had been framed for the Muslim League Party in the Punjab Legislative Assembly.

"SATYARATHA PRAKASH"

The Council unanimously passed a resolution moved by Moulana Khwaja Abdul Ghani and seconded by Moulana Zafar Ali Khan M.L.A. (Central) "emphatically demanding from the Government of India that those chapters of Swami Dayanand's book 'Satyarath Prakash' which contain objectionable and insulting remarks against founders of religions, particularly against the Holy Prophet of Islam, be proscribed immediately."

LEAGUE AND KHAKSARS

A resolution which imposes a ban on the Muslim Leaguers to have any connection with the Khaksar Organisation was moved by Chowdhury Khaliq-uz-Zaman who said that the Khaksars had jumped into politics in a most dangerous manner and to their policy of dictation none could submit. Had Mr. Jinnah submitted to the persuasions of the Khaksars to see Mr Ghandhi, where would the Muslim League be? he asked.

Mr. I I. Chundrigar, President of the Bombay Provincial Muslim League, supporting, asked: "If the Khaksars consider that they are strong enough, why do they want to have their wishes carried out by the Muslim League and not do it on their own?" He invited the Khaksars to leave their organisation and join the Muslim League and try to change the policy of the League according to their desire, from inside and not by outside coercion.

Mr. Gazdar said that till lately they considered the Khaksars as a useful body and prevailed upon the Punjab Government not to treat them harshly. The Khaksars today were following a policy hostile to the League and in the recent Sikarpur by-election there was considerable interference by them.

The resolution was further supported by Mr. Ghulam Mustapha Shah Gilani

DIVIDING MUSLIMS

Mr. Hamid Nizami who rose to oppose the resolution was constantly interrupted and checked. He considered the resolution redundant in view of the already existing provisions that Leaguers could not join any other organisation. He thought that the resolution, which they were passing would result in division among the Mussalmans.

Mr. Ra Nawaz Khan also opposed the resolution.

Mr. M. Ashraf conceded that the writings and actions of certain individuals in the Khaksar organisation could be condemned, but emphasised that they should not condemn the whole organisation. He was a 'muavin' (sympathiser) of the Khaksars, but if the Council passed the resolution, he declared, he would sever his connection with the Khaksar organisations.

JINNAH CLARIFIES POSITION

Mr. Jinnah observed that there seemed to be some confusion in the minds of the opposition. The Khaksars in the past had confined their activities to religious and social matters. "It was for that very reason that I did my utmost to save that organisation from British repression. Since 1939 I have done everything with my whole heart and soul to see that it was not crushed." The moment they came into politics they were a separate body. "Are you or are you not satisfied that the Khaksars by their recent writings and actions have adopted a political policy and that this policy is hostile to the Muslim League?

"You cannot owe allegiance to two organisations at one time." Mr. Jinnah, however, made slight alteration in the text of the resolution which, as amended, read:

"The Council after careful and earnest consideration has come to the conclusion that the Khaksar organisation which was originally a purely social and religious organisation, is as now shown by its writing and actions that it is pursuing a general policy which is hostile and antagonistic to the policy of the All-India Muslim League. In these circumstances the Council resolves that no member of the Muslim League should hereafter join or continue to remain as member of the Khaksar organisation."

The resolution was passed with two dissentient votes.

NO PERPETUATION OF BRITISH EMPIRE

Schuster On "India's World Role" And "U. S. Foreign Policy"

LONDON, Nov. 13.

The former Finance Member to the Government of India, Sir George Schuster, in the first of a series of articles headed, "India's world role", in the "Spectator" this week end discusses the American journalist Walter Lippmann's book on United States' foreign policy.

Sir George Schuster writes, "How can we find a way of political progress which satisfies the principle of national self-determination yet sufficiently preserves the unity of the Indian ocean region and its capacity to exist as the nucleus of order and support for the structure of world peace; Can British power in a new form, not as a dominating rule but as a unifying and supporting influence, become "lawful" through acceptance by the peoples of the region? The solution of this problem is essentially a British responsibility, but it is the interest of all the United nations. Will they, and especially America, help this country in its supremely difficult task? Or will they, by expressions and criticisms superficially made and easily misunderstood, make it more difficult?

BRITISH EMPIRE AND AMERICA

Mr. Lippmann in one of the most arresting passages in his book, says that British policy which continued nineteenth century imperialism, would forfeit to Great Britain the support of America, lead to conflict with Russia and thereby, in the end, disrupt the concert of the victorious powers. Nobody in this country seriously thinks of perpetuating British imperialistic domination. But might not the other extreme policy, a policy of complete abandonment of the British role in Asia endanger no less the grand alliance of Powers by engendering chaos in the Indian Ocean from which dissension would ultimately arise?"—Reuter.

VOTE FOR CONGRESS

North Bombay Voters Must Do Their Duty To-morrow

The Bombay Municipal Congress Party has issued the following appeal:

Six Congressmen elected by you in 1939 to the Bombay Municipal Corporation have been deprived of their seats by an arbitrary act of the bureaucratic government. You have been deprived of your chosen representatives. You have to show to the rulers that you stand by your choice once again.

Non-Congress candidates know that in a due contest they have no hope of success. Their only hope is that pro-Congress voters may become overconfident and may neglect going to the polling booths. It is not sufficient for you to think Congress. You have to vote Congress. Your indolence is the only hope of the opponents of the Congress. Therefore be alert and ask everyone of your friends to be alert.

Go to the polling stations and cast your vote for the Congress candidates. They are: for—

INDIAN COLONIAL STUDENTS' GRIEVANCES

No Seats In Medical Colleges

BOMBAY, Sunday.

Sir Shafat Ahmed Khan, High Commissioner for India in South Africa was entertained to tea this afternoon by the Colonial Indian Students' Association at the Indian Merchants' Chamber Hall. Addressing the chief guest of the evening, Dr. O. V. Jooma, President of the Association said that their organisation had been started three years ago mainly as a guide to Colonial Indian students who were now in India for purposes of study in Indian Universities. There were several disabilities under which Indian students from Africa suffered during their stay in India. The most important of them was the difficulty they experienced in getting admitted into colleges in India, particularly Medical colleges. Barring the Grant Medical College in Bombay which reserved two seats, the doors of the rest of the Medical Colleges were barred to Colonial Indian Students. The College authorities refused admission on the score that there were not enough seats even for provincial students. Dr. Jooma urged Sir Shafat to use his influence in securing two seats in every college for colonial students.

Replying to the representation, Sir Shafat promised to move the Overseas Department at Delhi to sound all important Medical Colleges in the matter of reserving at least one seat in each college for colonial Indian students. It may not be possible, he said, for colleges to reserve two seats under the present circumstances. Sir Shafat was not in favour of any discrimination between Indian students from South Africa and those from East Africa or Central Africa in the matter of allocation seats. The final word, however, rested with College authorities.

Sir Shafat urged students to keep the cultural bond between Indians and the colonial Indians.
